specially exempted, or who offers any opposition or resistance to the Veterinary Inspector or his peons, the contractor or his servants or to the Market Sergeant or his peons, or to the Conservancy Overseers in the execution of their duty, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

12. The contractor shall not levy or receive any fee for slaughtering, other than that prescribed and authorised by bye-law 6.

13. The Veterinary Inspector shall look after the conservancy business of the slaughter-house and shall inspect the slaughter-house daily between the hours of 6 and 7 A.M., and furnish a report to the President by 12 noon of the result of such inspection.

14. No carcass or any portion of carcass of any sheep or goat slaughtered outside the limits of the City Municipality shall be sold in any of the City Municipal Markets, or any part of the City, by the owner or person in possession thereof without the carcass being first examined by the Veterinary Inspector of the City Municipality and the prescribed fee being paid to the contractor for the same, and whoever is found in possession of or vending such carcass or any portion thereof in contravention of these provisions, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

15. No carcass or any portion of carcass of any sheep or goat slaughtered outside the limits of the City shall be supplied by any person or persons to any of the City Hospitals and English or Native hotels or eating houses without such carcass being first examined by the Veterinary Inspector of the City Municipality and the prescribed fee being paid to the contractor of the same, and whoever is found in possession of or vending such carcass or any portion thereof in contravention of these provisions, shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

16. Every sheep or goat which, upon examination by the Veterinary Inspector, is found to be suffering from any infectious or contagious disease shall be marked and handed over to the owner.

17. Persons suffering from leprosy, sores or other contagious or loathsome diseases shall not be permitted to enter the slaughter-house. No dog, or any other animal not intended for slaughter, or sheep or goat not permitted to be slaughtered shall be admitted into the slaughter-house.

18. The Health Officer or any other officer of the Health Department empowered by the Health Officer on this behalf shall have free access to the slaughter-house at any time or any day for inspection.

19. Sheep entrails and tripe which are fit for human consumption and permitted to be removed from the slaughter-house or hanging rooms shall be removed in covered metal buckets or carts approved by the Health Officer, and such buckets or carts together with their covers shall at all times be kept clean.

20. Any person who infringes Bye-laws 17 and 19 shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

K. P. PUTTANNA CHETTY,
Honorary President.

HASSAN DISTRICT BOARD.

Notice dated 28th April 1913.

The District Board of Hassan having, at their meeting held on the 24th February 1913, approved of the undermentioned Draft Bye-laws framed by the District Board in their Resolution No. XXII, dated 5th August 1912, relating to the slaughtering of animals and the sale of meat in Union limits and in the santes under the control of the District Board of Hassan, the said Draft Bye-laws are hereby published for the information of the public.

2. Objections or suggestions in respect thereof received in writing within 1st July 1913 will be duly considered by the District Board.

Draft Bye-laws for the regulation of slaughterhouses and other places in which animals, meat, or fish, intended for human food, may be slaughtered or sold, framed under Section 31 A (a), (b) and (c) added by the Local Boards Amendment Regulation, No. X of 1911.

(1) These Bye-laws shall be called the "Slaughterhouse Bye-laws."

(2) No animal should be slaughtered in any public place or in any place which could be viewed from any public place or in any place near any dwelling house.

(3) No animals should be slaughtered and no meat or fish intended for human food should be sold in any public market or place.

(4) No person shall salt, cure or store hides, horns or skins within Union limits, except with a license from the President of the District Board.

(5) Every person wishing to slaughter animals or to sell meat or fish intended for human food, shall obtain a license from the President of the District Board. Such license will be granted only on condition that such slaughtering of animals or selling of meat intended for human food, is effected in a covered and secluded place at a proper distance from any building used as a human dwelling and beyond view from any public road, street or pathway.

(6) Any licensee who violates the conditions under which a license was granted will be liable to have his license withdrawn or suspended.

(7) A fee of Rs. 2, per annum shall be levied for every such license.

(8) Every such place, so licensed by the President of the District Board, shall be open to inspection by the Amildar of the Taluk and by other Sanitary authorities.

P. R. W. WETHERALL,
President, District Board.
